

Lodge your TPAR if your business has paid contractors

We understand this year has been difficult for many businesses and may have resulted in your businesses not lodging your Taxable payment annual report (TPAR) on time.

TPAR were due on 28 August for businesses who pay contractors or sub-contractors to perform these services:

- building and construction – this category is very broad (examples of building and construction services \(/Business/Reports-and-returns/In-detail/Examples-of-building-and-construction-services/\))
- cleaning
- courier, delivery or road freight
- information technology (IT)
- security, investigation or surveillance.

Resources to help you lodge

We have resources \(/Business/Reports-and-returns/Taxable-payments-annual-report/Resources-to-help-you/\) including webcasts and videos available which show you step-by-step how to prepare, record and report.

You can lodge your TPAR through our online services \(/general/online-services/\) or business software that offers TPAR. Remember when lodging we cannot process scanned or photocopied TPAR forms, spreadsheets or word processing files such as:
